No. 515.—The following draft of the rules for the manner of election of the chairmen of standing committees of district boards which the Governor acting with Ministers proposes to make in exercise of the powers conferred by

Notice is hereby given that the draft will be further proceeded with after six weeks from the date of publication of this notification and that any objection or suggestion which may be received with respect thereto before the expiry of the period aforesaid will be considered by the Governor acting with Ministers :—

DRAFT RULES.

1. (1) The election of the chairman of a standing committee of a district board shall be held in the office of the district board by the members of the standing committee at a meeting of the committee specially convened for the purpose.

(2) Such meeting shall be convened by the president of the district board as soon as possible after the election of the members of the standing committee or the occurrence of the vacancy, as the case may be. Notice of the day and hour of the meeting shall be given to the members at least fifteen clear days previous to the day of the meeting.

(3) Such meeting shall be presided over by the president of the district board or if the president intends to stand as a candidate at the election or is his absence, by a member of the standing committee not intending to stand as a candidate at the election, chosen by the meeting to preside for the occasion.

2. Only a member of the standing committee who is a member of the district board may stand as a candidate at the election. A candidate shall be proposed by one member and seconded by another. The names of all the candidates proposed and seconded shall be read out by the president of the meeting.

3. (1) If there is only one duly nominated candidate, there shall be no ballot and he shall be declared to have been elected.

(2) If there are two or more such candidates, the votes of the members present at the meeting in the case of the standing committee for rural development and the votes of such of the members present at the meeting as are members of the district board, in the case of any other standing committee, shall be taken.

4. Every member entitled and wishing to vote shall be supplied with a voting paper on which the names of all the candidates shall be printed, typed, cyclostyled or legibly written in the following form in English and in the chief vernacular of the district :—

	Name.	Vote.
3

The voter shall then proceed to the place set a part for the purpose and there place a mark against the name of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote. He shall then fold up the voting paper so as to conceal his vote and deposit the same in a ballot-box placed in the view of the president of the meeting and so constructed that the paper may be placed therein but not extracted therefrom without the box being opened.

The president of the meeting shall then open the box and count the votes in the presence of the members and declare the result of the election in accordance with the following instructions :—

(i) If there are only two candidates, the one who secures the larger number of votes shall be declared to have been elected. In the event of there being an equality of votes between the two candidates, the president of the meeting shall draw lots in the presence of the members and the person whose name is first drawn shall be declared to have been duly elected.

(ii) If there are more than two candidates, the one who obtains the smallest number of votes shall be eliminated and the votes taken again. If there is an equality of votes among all the candidates, or if two or more candidates (except on the last) have obtained an equal number of votes, the president of the meeting shall ascertain by casting lots in the presence of the members which of such candidates shall be eliminated. The elimination shall be repeated until only two candidates are left, when votes shall be taken for the last time and the candidate who secures the larger number of votes shall be declared to have been duly elected. In the event of there being an equality of votes at the final stage between the two remaining candidates the president of the meeting shall draw lots in the presence of the members and the person whose name is first drawn shall be declared to have been duly elected.

5. No candidate shall take part in a ballot, but a candidate may withdraw at any stage, and after so withdrawing, may take part in any ballot. Similarly a candidate who has been eliminated at any stage under clause (ii) of rule 4 may take part in any ballot at subsequent stages.

6. Any voting paper upon which a member signs his name or writes any word, or makes any mark by which it becomes recognisable, or on which the mark is placed against more than one name shall be invalid.

7. Immediately after the meeting, the president of the meeting shall—

(a) publish on the notice board of the district board concerned a notification, signed by him, stating the name of the person elected as chairman ; and

(b) forward a copy of such notification to the Superintendent, Government Press, for publication in the District Gazette.

8. (1) The president of the meeting shall then seal up the voting papers, whether counted or rejected, and note on each packet the number of papers it contains and the election to which it relates.

(2) These packets shall not be opened and their contents shall not be inspected or produced except under the orders of a competent court.

(3) The packets shall be retained in safe custody in the office of the district board concerned for a year and shall then, unless otherwise directed by the orders of a competent court, be destroyed.

No. 816.—The following draft of the rules for the manner of election of members of standing committees of district boards which the Governor acting with Ministers proposes to make in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (a) of sub-section (3) of section 27-A and clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 199 of the Madras Local Boards Act, 1920 (Madras Act XIV of 1920), is hereby published as required by clause (a) of section 200 of the said Act, for general information. Notice is hereby given that the draft will be further proceeded with after six weeks from the date of publication of this notification and that any objection or suggestion which may be received with respect thereto before the expiry of the period aforesaid will be considered by the Governor acting with Ministers :—

DRAFT RULES.

1. (1) The election of any member or members of a standing committee of a district board shall be held in the office of the district board at a meeting of the board specially convened for the purpose.

(2) Such meeting shall be convened by the president of the district board as soon as possible after the coming into force of the Madras Local Boards and Elementary Education (Amendment) Act, 1934, or the requisition of the Local Government under sub section (2) of section 27-A of the Madras Local Boards Act, 1920, or the occurrence of the vacancy, as the case may be.

Notice of the day and hour of the meeting shall be given to the members of the district board at least fifteen clear days previous to the day of the meeting.

2. A separate election shall be held for each standing committee. If elections be held at the same meeting of the district board to fill vacancies on more than one standing committee, the order in which the elections are taken, shall be as follows :—

Elections to the standing committees mentioned in sub section (1) of section 27 A of the Act shall be taken up first, in the order in which the standing committees are mentioned in that sub-section. Elections to the standing committees, if any, constituted under sub-section (2) of the said section 27 A shall be taken up thereafter in the order in which such committees were constituted by the district board.

If, however, the election to any standing committee is adjourned under rule 5, the elections for the standing committees next in order shall be proceeded with.

3. The meeting for the election of members of any standing committee or committees shall be presided over by the President or in his absence by the Vice President or if the Vice-President intends to stand as a candidate at the election of any of the elections, as the case may be, or in his absence, by a member not intending to stand as a candidate at the election, or any of the elections, as the case may be, chosen by the meeting to preside for the occasion.

4. Every candidate for election shall be proposed by one member and seconded by another. A candidate who has been proposed and seconded may withdraw his candidature by making a statement to that effect at the meeting of the district board. The names of all the candidates who have been proposed and seconded and who have not withdrawn their candidature, shall be read out by the President or the Presiding Member.

5. If the number of candidates whose names are so read out is equal to the number of vacancies the President or the Presiding Member shall declare all such candidates duly elected.

6. If the number of such candidates is less than the number of vacancies, the President or the Presiding Member shall declare all such candidates duly elected and shall either call for fresh nominations or adjourn the election to fill up the remaining vacancy or vacancies to the next meeting of the district board.

7. If the number of such candidates exceeds the number of vacancies, the votes of the members present at the meeting shall be taken by ballot. The President shall make adequate arrangements to secure the privacy of the ballot.

8. Every member wishing to vote shall be supplied with a voting paper on which the names of all such candidates shall be typed or legibly written in the following form:—

Name.	Vote.
1

Each member shall be told how many votes may be given and he shall then proceed to the place set apart for the purpose and there place a mark against the name of the candidate or the names of the candidates for whom he wishes to vote. He shall then fold up the voting paper so as to conceal his vote and deposit the same in a ballot box placed in the view of the President or the Presiding Member. The ballot box shall be so constructed that the voting paper may be placed therein but not extracted therefrom without the box being opened. The President or the Presiding Member shall then open the box and count the votes in the presence of two members (other than candidates) who shall be nominated to him by the President or the Presiding Member.

9. The candidate who obtains the largest number of votes, or if there is more than one vacancy, as many of the candidates at the top of the poll as there are vacancies to be filled, shall be declared to have been duly elected. C.S. BILL No. 1 OF 1934.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Trusts Act, 1882, for a certain purpose.

II of 1882. WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Trusts Act, 1882, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Indian Trusts (Amendment) Act, 1934.

Amendment of section 20, Act II of 1882. 2. To clause (a) of section 20 of the Indian Trusts Act, 1882, the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

"Provided that securities, both the principal whereof and the interest whereon shall have been fully and unconditionally guaranteed by any such Government, shall be deemed, for the purposes of this clause, to be securities of such Government."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Certain Provincial Governments, and in particular the Government of Madras, are desirous that the status of trustee securities should be extended to debentures issued by Land Mortgage Banks and similar cooperations, provided that both the principal and interest of such securities are fully and unconditionally guaranteed by the Local Government concerned. The most suitable method of giving effect to this in a general form was considered in connexion with the Reserve Bank legislation and the proposed amendment to the Indian Trusts Act, 1882, follows, with suitable verbal alterations, the wording of the first proviso to sub-section (3) of section 17 of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934.

XVII of 1927.

Repeals.

XVII of 1911. X of 1914. XVI of 1914.

20. The Indian Aircraft Act, 1911, the entry relating thereto in the First Schedule to the Repealing and Amending Act, 1914, and the Indian Aircraft (Amendment) Act, 1914, are hereby repealed.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Aerial navigation in British India is at present governed by the Indian Aircraft Act, 1911, and the rules made thereunder. In 1919 an International Convention for the regulation of Aerial Navigation was signed by the plenipotentiaries of 27 countries, with the object of establishing regulations of universal application and of encouraging peaceful intercourse with nations by means of aerial communications. To this Convention India was a signatory. The Convention deals with all questions relating to international aerial navigation, and also provides for the institution of a permanent International Commission for Air Navigation, with very wide powers as regards the formulation of rules for the marking of aircraft, the grant of certificates, rules of the air and so forth. This Commission meets from time to time to amend the annexes of the Convention, which contain the detailed rules to be observed by the aircraft of all signatory States and by all aircraft when within the borders of these States.

2. For some years past the inadequacy of the Indian Aircraft Act 1911, has been increasingly felt, and the stage has now been reached where it is no longer possible to control air traffic efficiently, or to implement India's international obligations without fresh legislation. The present Bill therefore is designed to enlarge the rule-making powers of the Governor General in Council in order to meet modern developments, to enable Government to give full effect to the provisions of the International Convention and its annexes and to provide for certain other matters on which legislation has become necessary.

F. NOYCE.

NEW DELHI,
The 10th March, 1934.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 2.—The definition of "aircraft" differs from that given in the present Act and is based on the definition in one of the annexes to the Convention.

Clause 3.—This clause will give the Governor General in Council power to make relaxations in favour of aircraft on police or customs service, aircraft under test, unlicensed pilots undergoing instruction or test, and in other cases where the application of the full force of the Act and rules is inexpedient.

Clauses 4 and 5.—Clause 5 contains all the specific rule-making powers now required; but as fresh powers may at any time be required to give effect to a new annex to the Convention, clause 4 has been included.

All rule-making powers are given to the Governor General in Council, and the concurrent power of Local Governments to make rules subject to the control of the Governor General in Council, which appears in section 3 of the present Act, has been removed. This is in accordance with the present constitutional position.

Clause 6.—This clause contains only those elements of sections 6, 6, 7 and 7A which are required in times of emergency and is of restricted scope. Those elements of these sections which are required for normal times are included in clauses 7 and 8, with lesser penalties under clause 10.

Clause 7 is a new and specific rule-making power on the very important subject of the investigation of accidents.

Clause 8 is a necessary disciplinary power to secure that airmen and aircraft comply with the Act, and with the rules and orders issued thereunder and is a restricted version of clause (s) of sub section (1) of section 6 of the present Act.

Clause 9 is also new and is an extension of the law of salvage to aircraft.

Clauses 10, 11, 12 and 13, along with subclause (4) of clause 8 contain the penal provisions of the Bill. The penalty of three years' imprisonment, which may be awarded to a large number of offences under section 6 of the present Act, has been restricted to offences under clause 6; and in other respects also the penalties prescribed in sections 6 and 9 of the present Act have been reduced.

Clause 15, like clause 9, is an extension of the Merchant Shipping Law to Aerial Navigation.

Clause 16 makes specific provision for the application of customs procedure to the import and export of goods by air.

Clause 17 is new and establishes the important principle that the mere fact of flight over property does not in itself constitute trespass or nuisance.

Secretary to the Government of India.
